Ref. No.: IITM/AA/2026/115 Date: 04 September 2026

Subject: Declaration of Holiday on 05 September 2026 on the Occasion of National Teachers' Day

In recognition of the invaluable contribution of teachers and educators towards the advancement of education, knowledge, research, and nation-building, the Competent Authority has approved the declaration of Saturday, 05 September 2026, as an institutional holiday on the occasion of National Teachers' Day, observed in loving memory of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, former President of India, eminent philosopher, scholar, and educationist.

Accordingly, all academic, administrative, hostel, admission, student services, and other routine institutional activities of the Institute shall remain suspended on 05 September 2026.

All scheduled routine official work, including academic processing, hostel-related formalities, admission and registration activities, departmental administrative work, and other non-emergency institutional services shall remain on hold for the duration of the holiday.

The suspension of routine institutional activities shall not affect essential services, emergency operations, campus security, medical services, or other services specifically designated by the Institute as essential.

All academic and routine institutional activities shall resume from Monday, 07 September 2026, in accordance with the schedules and instructions issued by the respective Departments and administrative offices.

Students, faculty members, staff members, and all other concerned persons are advised to take note of the above and make necessary arrangements accordingly.

The Institute extends its sincere appreciation to the teaching community and acknowledges the enduring contribution of teachers in shaping generations of students and contributing to the intellectual and social development of the nation.

With regards,
